

Forgive

Harem Scarem

Ya now I know
I don't belong here
in a while
I'll be cut in the race
Your time is done
I don't know what you're doing
I should have run far
The other way

And this is the thanks
I get from you
When all of your lies
Have fallen through
Still I pretend everything
Is fine here

I won't ever forget
What you've done to me
And I won't ever forgive
What you've come to be
I won't ever re-live
What you've done to me
And if I didn't know better
I think you're trying to burry me
There's nothing out there
Sweeter than revenge ya
And I mean it in a loving way

And after all that I've done
You let me down
I'm so tired of chasing
You all around
