

Gone

Harem Scarem

Sometimes in your life
You'll pay for mistakes that you've made
And I don't wanna lie
Here in this bed that we've made

Now I wanna know
Could it be
Time has made strangers
Out of you and me

And I feel
Nothing is real
And that it's all a lie not where I wanna be
And I'm done feeling
This can't go on
And I know everyday
That these dark clouds are gonna blow away
When you're gone

I've come to decide
I'm tired of being your slave
And this is goodbye
There's nothing here we can save

I wanna know
Could it be
Time has made strangers
Out of you and me

Oh now I feel
Nothing is real
And that it's all a lie not where I wanna be
And I'm done feeling
This can't go on
And I know everyday
That these dark clouds are gonna blow away
When you're gone
