

Leading Me On

Harem Scarem

Distant stare way beyond repair
Lipstick and hair cover every tear
Every wound every fear
Til you just don't seem to notice who you aren't
One day we're falling apart
Leading me on and leading you off
You always will bury us all
Leading me on
Talk is cheap
Flowing from the weak
You lie and deceive
But only when you speak
Is it cold is it bleak
As you wander through the Darkness of your heart
