

Lost In Yesterday

Harem Scarem

Remember the hot summer nights
We never found a warmer breeze
If we're lost in time
I'm staying here and never gonna leave
I remember the look in your eyes
Is it something that I'll ever see again
We're gonna make it right
Like two lovers on the silver screen

It's been a long time coming
Time to face the truth
It's been a long time coming
Now there's nothing left to prove

Lost in yesterday
Trying to find the words I wanna say
You're a lonely girl in a lonely world
It's the same for me

Through the years I find
Nothing changed it's just another phase
Standing the test of time
Through the dawning of a graceless age
What were we hoping to find
Is it something that can never be again
Now in desperate times
There's nothing real that's why we all pretend
