

One Step At A Time

Harem Scarem

I'm holding on to the best thing that I ever heard
Remembering those moments when I felt so sad
I would cry in the night time
All alone in desperate fear
It just a longing that I have
For you to be near

Just keep in mind
I can't live without your love
If you would be so kind
To keep me around

Now I'm living my life just the way you want me
Not to be unkind
But I'm taking your love one step at a time
