Harem Scarem

Unaware
Is turning into full denial
I don't care
I'm dragging it another mile

If happiness is no regret
I'm living the dream

Reality
Is in between your head and heart
We never see
The writing on the wall

Times have changed
We're losing all control in life
Running scared
Trying to find the other side

If happiness is no regret
I'm living the dream

Reality
Is in between your head and heart
We never see
The writing on the wall

The enemy
Is the ticking of the clock
We never see
The writing on the wall

Reality
Is in between your head and heart
We never see
The writing on the wall

The enemy
Is the ticking of the clock
We never see
The writing on the wall

Reality
Is in between your head and heart
We never see
The writing on the wall

The enemy
Is the ticking of the clock
We never see
The writing on the wall
