

Voice Inside

Harem Scarem

When the full moon's
On the horizon
Under dark cover of the night
Is when the voice inside
Overloads

Well it feeds on your Inner vices
When your God won't
Show you the light

And the voice inside
Haunts your mind
No running away
No hope yet you pray
To end your sorrow
You're lying there safe
Then voices awake
You're destined to overload

With your heart and mind
Still colliding
There's a torture
You keep inside
