

Enter the sacred

Harmony

A life called divine
Nothing is left to gain
Just one in the line
All trust is fading away

One promise for us all
Something to stop our fall
One betrayal and we're damned
Is this is written in sand

We know the prize so well
See the truth divides the land
Salvation, no, not for sale
Is it a gift right in our hands

Ending game and again we fail
Can we prevail and enter the sacred way

One million tears you cry
Thousands of fears you fight
In dreams you can't deny
And awake you dare not try

One Way to walk on through
One start to show the way
One game to win and soon
You will be standing in grace

We know the prize so well
See the truth divides the land
Salvation, no, not for sale
Is it a gift right in our hands

Ending game and again we fail
Can we prevail and enter the sacred way
Ending game and again we fail
Can we prevail and enter the sacred way

Go on before you break
In the night all is gone
No one can all this take
Your spirit carries on

Ending game and again we fail
Can we prevail and enter the sacred way
