

In The Zum-Zum-Zummernight

Harpo

As your mama and papa may say hey girl, won't you stay at home today; we don't know what you are doin', we don't know where you are goin', but they should know that you are growin'; In the zum-zum-zummernight

In the zum-zum-zummernight

In the zum-zum-zummernight

Ev'rything's alright.

I'm gonna play on my romantic guitar, as we lie under the twinkling stars; let's have a rendezvous, just me and you; In the zum-zum-zummernight

In the zum-zum-zummernight

In the zum-zum-zummernight

Ev'rything's alright.

The only one watchin' us is the moon in the sky; come on girl, you just got to try, forget about the winter, forget about the cold; when summer is here and there is someone to hold; Like the Beatles in "Strawberry Fields" we're gonna harvest our thoughts of love forever and ever the stars and we'll be together; In the zum-zum-zummernight

In the zum-zum-zummernight

Ev'rything's alright
