

Let me stay

Harry Connick, Jr.

Are you cold?
Will you let me warm you?
Are you tired?
Will you lie next to me?

Don't be scared
That I'll leave you without warning
I've never cared this much, believe me
I'll want you more by morning

You have lips
I could kiss for hours
I have time
I'm not going away

Please, just let me hold you
And love you like I told you
Baby, let me stay

You have lips
I could kiss for hours
I have time
I'm not going away

Please, just let me hold you
And love you like I told you
Baby, let me stay

Please, let me stay
