

S'pposed To Be

Harry Connick, Jr.

Just a nick of time before I'm home with you
Just a little while I'm on my way
I can see you smiling feel your love so true
Just a little pins on the paint

When I think of heaven I see fields of gold
And angels singing softly just for me
It would be the sweetest thing that I'll behold
Stronger than my old magnolia tree

When I'm s'pposed to be
When I'm s'pposed to be
I'll be with you when I'm s'pposed to be
Every road I travel leads me back to you
I'll be with you when I'm s'pposed to be

Got no time for hurrying I'll keep my pace
I don't care if people pass me by
Know my journey's over when I see your face
Loving arms and sprung on in your eyes

When I'm s'pposed to be
When I'm s'pposed to be
I'll be with you when I'm s'pposed to be
Every road I travel leads me back to you
I'll be with you when I'm s'pposed to be

Just a nick of time before I'm home with you
Just a little time I'm on my way
I can see you smiling feel your love so true
Just a little pins on the paint

When I'm s'pposed to be
When I'm s'pposed to be
I'll be with you when I'm s'pposed to be
Every road I travel leads me back to you
I'll be with you when I'm s'pposed to be

When I'm s'pposed to be (4x)
I'm with you
When I'm s'pposed to be (4x)
I'm with you
When I'm s'pposed to be (4x)
I'm with you
