

You're Breakin' My Heart

Harry Nilsson

You're breakin' my heart
You're tearing it apart
So fuck you

All I want to do is have a good time now I'm blue
You won't boogaloo,
Run down to Tramps, have a dance or two, ooohhh
You're breakin' my heart,
You're tearing it apart
But fuck you

You're breakin' my heart
You're tearing it apart, boo-hoo

You stepped on my ass
You're breakin' my glasses too
You won't drive my car, might be a star

I've had enough of you
I'm goin' insane
There's no one to blame
So fuck you

You can't have your way
There's nothing left to say
There's nothing left to do, oooooohhh
You're breakin' my heart
You're tearing it apart
So fuck you

You gotta have your way
There's nothing left to do, oooooowww
You're breakin' my heart
You're tearing it apart
But I love you
