

Cannot have this, a perfect conversation
Or coast on silence and lowered expectations out the door
You've spent half your life talking trying to get a pause in ed gewise
Swallow poison tongues, oppose your thumbs, believe in nothing

Cannot have a nature change, one more time
You cannot have a nature change, cause the bastard changes

Cannot have this, you see how so much time has wasted
To take a clenched fist and see how quiet calm replaced it
You say you'll never trust again, I'll never trust again Who has time? You give that up on never finding the one you've been waiting for, but

Cannot have a nature change, one more time
You cannot have a nature change, cause the bastard changes

Well I got no more time to spend on arguers
Devil's advocates and nasty bits of fits of desperation
"Lawrence of Arabia," sir Alex said to Peter
"What I owe you is beyond evaluation now"

Extend to me your hand, I'll nibble on your fingers Bend to me your sweet ear, I'll gnaw it from its hinges now woo h!

Cannot have a nature change, one last time
Yeah thats why ladies love cool james, cause the bastard change
