

Labyrinth

Haste the Day

We are unfortunately ever so self-destructive
We live inside this labyrinth
Waiting to go home
Labyrinth oh labyrinth
Your worst is what we'd might expect from you
And in your twisted walls you sing out of tune
"Come in"
Labyrinth oh labyrinth
Your most is what we'd not expect from you
And in your tired walls you sing out of tune
"Come in make your self at home"
'Cause you wont be leaving soon.
All your friends are dead and gone
And you've got nothing to lose."
