Give Wings to My Triumph

Hatebreed

Here I am
Exposed in my brokenness
For the world to see
Here I am
Screaming these words
It's all I ever known of serenity
Here I am
Telling my pain, bearing my soul to the world
Here I am
Venting on this page, flawed and insecure no more
Here I am
Coming clean with myself, knowing that this time would come.
Here I am
Like a thousand voices, I know I'm not the only one.
Now my fist must never become unclenched.
Eternally prevailing against,
I must endure this misfortune and bring starvation for those who hunger for my defeat

Give wings to my triumph
Let this life ascend
Give wings to my triumph
Give rebirth for ever death

Here I am
Exposed in my brokenness
For the world to see
Here I am screaming these words
It's all I've known of serenity

Give wings to my triumph

See my will before you know
Life ascends in every breath
A rise for every fall
A life for (every death x4)

Here I am
Telling my pain, bearing my soul to the world
Here I am
Venting on this page, flawed and insecure no more
Here I am

Give me wings
So I ascend
Let me soar, take me farther then ever before

Give wings to my triumph
Life ascends in every breath
Give wings to my triumph
Rebirth for every death
Give wings to my triumph
And let me soar
Take me farther then ever before.
