

Looking Down the Barrel of Today

Hatebreed

Once I set a shotgun to my head they said I wasn't worth the bullets
Now the world is my trigger and I'm here to fucking pull it [x2]

Still here (still here!) I can't hesitate
Eyes wide open pupils dilate
Still here (right here!) set to detonate
i see the swarm the scavengers await

NO SLEEP! NO REST! and that's what it takes to be the best
NO SLEEP! NO REST!
must stay driven I can't relent

Once set a knife to my throat they said I'd wind up in the dirt
I know the ones who doubt me are the ones that really hurt

Still here (still here!) I cant hesitate
Eyes wide open pupils dilate
Still here (right here!) set to detonate
i see the swarm the scavengers await

NO SLEEP! NO REST! and that's what it takes to be the best
NO SLEEP! NO REST!
must stay driven I can't relent

Came from the gutter just missed the grave
No looking down the barrel of today start from nothing stop at nothing hell-bent never put myself in that position again

Now I'm looking down the barrel of today!

Once I set a shotgun to my head they said I wasn't worth the bullets
Now the world is my trigger...

I fucking pull it!

Once I set a shotgun to my head they said I wasn't worth the bullets
Now the world is my trigger and I'm gonna to fucking pull it.

NO SLEEP! NO REST! Muster what it takes to be the best.
NO SLEEP! NO REST! Do anything that it takes to be the best!
