

Pandora's Hell

Hatesphere

she was a gift to punish man oblivious to pain, grief and suffering she sent us straight to hell her curiosity stole away our innocence

with all the evils of the world into darkness she had a look inside the box and unleashed misery hope is all we have left but all hope is lost we will take it back

she gave us evil
a world in distress
of sorrow and torment

she sent us back to hell her atrocities defiled the world of man
back to the shadows back to insanity back to the evil we've become behold, pandora's hell is done

she unleashed all the evils of the world hope is everything in p andora's hell
