Reaper of Life

Hatesphere

A destined unseen brutal force Around us every day Determining when it's time For us to live or die

He's all around us now Awaiting his chance to strike

Understand his grand design
Into which we all fit
Understand that if you're fortunate
He'll visit all over again

There is no escape
He will claim his right

He's all around us now Awaiting his chance to strike There is no escape He will claim his right

In the end
No one escapes his plan
Today may very well be
Your time to shake his hand

Your life is at its end He will put you in your grave

He is coming to take away your life For eternity you shall pay

A destined unseen brutal force Around us every day Determining when it's time For us to live or die

There is no escape He will claim his right

He's all around us now Awaiting his chance to strike There is no escape He will claim his right
