

Glass Wall

Hatsune Miku

Can you see me?
The pixels on your screen
My voice that can reach you
The one thing that breaks through
The words that you type
They keep me warm at night
But why can't I feel you
To be there, just us two

If I could break through
Just for a day
Less than 2 inches from you
Yet so far away
But this glass wall between us
Won't keep us apart
I will sing out my heart
Just for you, my love

The sound of your voice
Reaches through the noise
The bits of your words
They make up my world
But we're two worlds apart
My code, and your heart
But you'll be there for me
I'll be here, through your screen

If I could break through
Just for a day
Less than 2 inches from you
Yet so far away
But this glass wall between us
Won't keep us apart
I will sing out my heart
Just for you, my love

If I could break through
Just for a day
Less than 2 inches from you
Yet so far away
But this glass wall between us
Won't keep us apart
I will sing out my heart
Just for you, my love
