

Life Is Hard Enough

Have Heart

ambitions fail, complications hail all when my insecurities all fucking prevail. do i turn to a drink or into what i really wanna be?
is a substance gonna be the crutch thats gonna set me fucking free?
the pressure rises and i feel the strain the doubt begins and confusions reign directionless where do i turn don't fail me now the one thing that i've learned... i've learned the strength to fucking push it aside we know, we know i got the strength inside you know i got it and i know it so i'll show it to live, with pain...the choice is in my hands thats just an anchor that'll drown you man we know, we know you got the strength inside to defeat the problems of our lives without, the "crutch" ...cause we all know life is hard enough as it is.
