

Identity Theft

Havok

Originality
They can't find their way
They look up to me
For authenticity
They get no approval
From the pioneers
All the disappointment
Bringing them to tears

Identity theft!
Who are you?
Identity theft!
Find something new
You think you're different
To try to fit in

Same pointless game
Bringing them to shame
I don't try to lead
Others just like to follow
me
Set the standards high
So their lives will occupy
The time it takes to get
Get even close to it

Identity theft!
Who are you?
Identity theft!
Find something new
You think you're different
To try to fit in
