

Last Words

Havok

I feel so trapped in this building of hell
Why am I here? Nobody can tell
Take me out from this big misery
Pain and death is all that I see

Where are my friends? They left me out here
Givers of death are closer than near
They're taking me out to the end of my time
What I pay is my life as a fine

Rescue me from the endless nightmares
So few attempts and nobody cares
Don't leave me here I don't want to die
There is no chance I hate you, goodbye

No remorse
They do what they please
Can't stand up
They severed my knees
Torn up inside
They've beaten me down
Now I'm gone
The end I have found

Rescue me from the endless nightmares
So few attempts and nobody cares
Don't leave me here I don't want to die
There is no chance I hate you, goodbye
