

Melting the Mountain

Havok

Melting the mountain
The seeds of creation
Washing away all the impurities
Calling it vengeance
But we don't deserve this
Our saving grace is that we are free

Melt me

Melting the mountain
Attack with a reason
Reasons that cannot be reasonably seen
Plotting against us
With raging persistence
Treason committed with no penalty

I can see it in your face
I can see it in your eyes
I can watch you turning your back
I can read through your lies

"What's that?
You're gonna try and hurt us?
Well, go ahead, I dare you"
