Hawkwind

Einstein was not a handsome fellow nobody ever called him al he had a long moustache to pull on one thing he missed out in his theory of time and space and relativity is something that makes it very clear he was never gonna score like you and me he didn't know about

I had a dangerous liason to be found out would have been a disgrace we had to rendezvous some days on the corner of an undiscovered place we got sick of chat chat chatter and the look upon everybody's face But all that does not not anti-matter now we found ourselves a black hole in space and we're talking about crazy about his telescope and galileo had a name that made his reputation higher than his hope did none of those astronomers discover while they were staring out into the dark that what a lady looks for in her lover
