The Sea King

Hawkwind

Sinking deeper beneath the waves Mind now resigned, accepts his fate Ancient alliance creeps into his thoughts Unbid to him comes a rune once taught The Sea King has come to him The Sea King to save him The Sea King has come to him

He sees that his life is safe His foe Yrkoon has failed The deed that was to finish him Has come to no avail

The Sea King has come to him The Sea King to save him The Sea King has come to him The Sea King to save him

To his kingdom he is now bound The sea around him is his shroud Age old wisdom has set him free So to realise his destiny The Sea King has come to him The Sea King to save him The Sea King to save him The Sea King has come to him The Sea King to save him The Sea King has come to him
