

Zero

Hawthorne Heights

Behind the scenes, in the shadows
In the alleys, with the vagabonds
I will struggle and I will live alone.
I will wallow the seas until I'm gone.
I've loved and I've lost it all

Zero!
You are the only number
That I know!
The price of being alone
As I get carried away, As I get carried away.
Zero!
You are my only hope

Beneath the ground, the red Georgia clay.
In the graveyard where the corpses lay.
I will remain and I will guide you home.
Don't be afraid to leave where you're from.
I've loved and I've lost it all.

Zero!
You are the only number
That I know!
The price of being alone
As I get carried away, As I get carried away.
Zero!
You are my only hope

Zero!
You are the only number
That I know!
The price of being alone
As I get carried away, As I get carried away.
Zero!
You are my only hope
