

Hypnotizing

Hayden Panettiere

You must've hit me when I wasn't looking
Woke up dizzy, I can't remember nothing
Oh, oh, but those sweet, blue eyes
I'm seeing flashbacks dancing in my mind
The way you kiss me as sweet as summertime
And I, I don't stand a chance

Oh, 'cause boy, I was rolling
The second you walked in the room

It feels like you've gone and put a spell on me
You shook my world apart, and suddenly
I'm helpless, reckless, so baby, I lost my mind
And tonight, your love is hypnotizing
Hypnotizing

The way you touch me, boy, you send me flying
The way you move me is electrifying
Oh, oh, rushing through my veins
I try to fight it, but I'm powerless
I'm no match for what I'm up against
But I, I keep giving in

And I don't have a prayer
Oh, but, honey, I don't even care

It feels like you've gone and put a spell on me
You shook my world apart, and suddenly
I'm helpless, reckless, so baby, I lost my mind
And tonight, your love is hypnotizing
