

Better Off Inside

Hayden

Did you open your eyes when you first saw me?
Did you open your eyes when you first saw... me?
First saw me

It's funny how things make sense when your lonely
It's funny how you want more when your happy
I'm coming over, will you open the door for me
I'm better off inside

In your eyes, I see you in disguise
You're talking backwards, telling lies
Telling lies

It's funny how things make sense when your lonely
It's funny how you want more when your happy
I'm coming over, will you open the door for me
I'm better off inside
