

In beginning's start
At the end of ends
There is only one
Who knows everything
Sees my whole being
Lifts me from de ditch
He keeps walk on
Helping His people

I mustn't steal and I mustn't kill
I mustn't love a master but Him
And I will not, for I have no need
I only trust one Almighty King

Not busy, never sleeps
Just listen, He will speak
The whole world is made of
The Words of His wisdom

Not busy, never sleeps
Just listen, He will speak
The whole world is made of
The Words of His wisdom

In beginning's start
At the end of ends
Faithfulness can be
A tremendous help
I am safe from all
The evil things, they fall
He takes me along
Helping His people

I mustn't witness black to be white
I mustn't covet what isn't mine
And I will not, for I have no need
I only trust the Almighty King

Not busy, never sleeps
Just listen, He will speak
The whole world is made of
The Words of His wisdom

Not busy, never sleeps
Just listen, He will speak
The whole world is made of
The Words of His wisdom

Not busy, never sleeps
Just listen, He will speak
The whole world is made of
The Words of His wisdom

Not busy, never sleeps
Just listen, He will speak
The whole world is made of

The Words of His wisdom

Not busy, never sleeps
The whole world is made of

Not busy, never sleeps
The whole world is made of
