

Sometimes when I sleep, I feel a sorrow that's inside, I see only darkness, my rainy days
I don't know what I need maybe it's only little love, but truth is so painful and I scream
Someone catch me, summer is far away, I know will be better to go outside, with my pride
Green sky is unclean, my brain needs to fly away...Father! Mother! Where I save my life
Stay! I love you! But I can't find!

Ref:

Your body, one wonderful space
You're one that I love and I hope you still need me
Whenever I dream, Moon is crying
I'm in love it's strange I met you yesterday, your skin was so shiny, you were laughing yeeah
Now I wake up, I think it was only fairytail, you're not here and I'm down
Someone catch me, summer is far away, I know will be better to go outside, with my pride
Is it the end of my life? You are not here! Is it the end of my life? Wish you to be here
Stay! I love you! But I can't find!
Father, she's not here I'm so sad
Mother, she's not here I know you're so glad
