

Would you be free, to share it with me my deepest sympathy absurdity, simplicity- you're the one for me light up the stars, drink up the night claim your rights for fight hungry days comes as you break the noise she's the only one

Ref: Hey slow down and enjoy
The fragments of life silent poetry is flowing through the veins in your heart.

Selfness in me - reality freaking fantasy watching TV, killing priority what's the best for me

It's 7.15 we are just stucked in here drinking the cheapest beer.
The time's running out, just for one sight- you're crying next to me

Ref: Hey slow down and enjoy
silent poetry is flowing through
the veins in your heart.
