

Transformation

Hc3

When you calling out my name, the redemption is not the same transformations still remains, we are guiding to find out ourself if

it's killing us like Martyrs, they were suffering for you all
Save the moment for the future, it will be required later

Ref: Don't regret the things you've done, don't be a sentimental

Clown and don't live in their lies.

accept the present how it comes, take your time, settle down and don't live in their lies.

It is here, just like me. it is going to be free

I realize, it's funny I close my eyes

I'm spreading the word to the world

I'm coming here I am.

Save the moment for the future, it will be required later

Ref: Don't regret the things you've done, don't be a sentimental

Clown and don't live in their lies.

accept the present how it comes, take your time, settle down

and don't live in their lies.

You're telling me lies, lies upon house of flies, you're giving me skeptic view

I thought I had, friendly selections are surrounding you all
