

Your Choice

Hc3

I'm standing here and my hands are clean, what do you think about it...don't tell me lies, I'm not a clown, I have so much, I'm alive

I need a time to remove your light, give me a piece of you...your life is a gear, take a place and hear, hear who I am and trust me

Trust me and follow the way, trust me and see the light that's shining

Ref:

Pray, when you hear my voice

Yes, it's your finally choice Now!

Are you o.k.? Now you know the way, I'm thinking of you and I'm smiling...your life is a gift, you can see me, we are both sunny persons

I need a time to stay alive, you need a piece of my heart...your life is a gear, take a pace and hear, hear who I am and trust me
I am alive and I breathe, you are alive so trust me
