

Lying Through Your Teeth

Head Automatica

Everybody knows you're a liar, why don't I?
I just heard about your lovin' on the side
You're telling tall tales girl
Spinning webs too big to climb
Everybody know you're a liar, why don't I?

I always knew you were a fraud

You're lying through your teeth
You're not at all, not at all what you seem

Girl your love's so cheap, we been passing you around There's cheating on you lips and you've been the talk of my town n
Fix your mask girl
It's crooked on the side
Everybody know you're a liar what don't I?
