I'm Feelin' Fine

Got a new lady, little bit crazy Never a moment of doubt in my mind Couldn't forget her, soon as I met her Knowin' that she was one of a kind

She's the kind of woman That makes a man feel right When she starts to lovin' Oh, it's goin' to last all night

I'm feelin' fine, knowin' she's mine [Incomprehensible], can't reason why Knowin' that I could've always been free I'm feelin' fine, knowin' you're mine

I used to be lonely, wonderin' if only Someone like you, would happen my way Ever a dreamer, always a schemer Tryin' to find, someone who would stay

Now that I found you, waitin' for me All of my dreams have come true Now you beside me, feelin' so free I just have to tell you

I'm feelin' fine, knowin' you're mine And you're always near me, can't reason why Knowin' that I could've always been free I'm feelin' fine, knowin' you're mine

She's the kind of woman That makes a man feel right When she starts to lovin' Oh, it's gonna last all night

I'm feelin' fine, knowin' you're mine And you're always near me, can't reason why Knowin' that I could've always been free I'm feelin' fine, oh, I'm feelin' fine

I'm feelin' fine I'm feelin' fine
