Bass kicking track [4x]

We 'bout to pump through the speakers We get nothing but respect And hold weird devotion, the grudge of our track For every day I live, you'll be forced to watch your back We're darkening, producing, a boom-bass kicking track Breaking down the system, that shall not cross my head Any essay of resistance, will result in sudden death We impose a new sensation, or we will kindly ask Is your full anticipation of this boom-bass kicking track?
