

Tokyo

Headlights

You're walking,
Walking slow.
But you gotta move fast,
In Tokyo.

You can't believe your eyes,
You finally got here.
So many little red lights,
It's so alive here.

Another broken heart,
Another town you must take in stride.

If home is where the heart is,
Then home is here.
Because love aint all you need,
You see my dear.

Another broken heart,
Another town you must take in stride.

Another broken heart,
Another town you must take in stride
