

Burn For Me

Headstone Epitaph

Walking through the darkness again
I'm not alone
I'm surrounded by a friend
deep in the night
you said to me
I'll be at your side
I want you to be
please rescue me

Burn for me a light Burn it every night
light for me the way
until the light of day

I've been always there to keep an eye on your heart
no one should dare
to tear it apart
say it again over and over and over my friend
I want to hear it again
