

Rest Your Hand

Headstone Epitaph

You are alone and so am I why don't we live together always and then be my best friend forever and ever we are so close no one would dare to come between our love take my hand and then i swear to rest your head

Rest Your head on my shoulder
rest your head on my shoulder
I wanna hold your hand
until the promised land
at the horizons' sea
so far away it seems

Something in me said
it's for always
I'm not to blind to see
it's for always

so far away it seems

You are the one for me no doubt about we believe there is nothing instead to hold your hand and rest your head
