Headstones

Where does it go when the last breath leaves me Stinking drinking I'm slowing down Jesus Christ almighty save me Where ever you want I'll kneel down Busted headlights broken ribs so hoarse I can't swallow Changed my name about an hour ago and I drive into tomorrow Losing control - I can't take it Losing control - man if I could Losing control - I won't fake it Losing cont - trol Catch me now I'm slipping baby I don't know where to turn Last time that I saw him man he did the chicken while he burned Line 'em up I shoot 'em down no never mind to me Contain it all the hard way I do it intravenously So many ways to define it It simply is a curse And what it was that drove me here A fifth of it was nerve Busted headlights broken ribs so numb that I'm hollow Changed the claim about an hour ago I drive into tomorrow
