

All Eyes

Heart

Hey hot shot boy hand on your hip
You're wasting your time giving me lip
When you look at me, it melts my legs
And wraps me around your fingertip

You don't have to say a word
To get a hold of me
Take me, shake me
Burning gravity baby
Look at me, look at me

You're all eyes, all eyes
Touching me in the night
You're all eyes, and those eyes
Are tearing me up inside

We go walking you and I
If some woman turns your eye
I pull you back in my direction
Too keep you by my side

You don't have to go nowhere
To get where you should be
You don't have to look around
Baby just you look at me
Look at me, look at me

You're all eyes, all eyes
Touching me in the night
You're all eyes, and those eyes
Are tearing me up inside

You're all eyes, all eyes
Touching me in the night
You're all eyes, and those eyes
Are tearing me up inside

You're all eyes, all eyes
Touching me in the night
You're all eyes, and those eyes
Are tearing me up inside

You're all eyes, all eyes
Touching me in the night
You're all eyes, and those eyes
Are tearing me up inside
