

The Arrow Killed The Beast

Heartless Bastards

New day's arisin' look out from the edge of the window
Out in the country oh so quiet and still Goin' out roamin', roamin' around in the day dreams
Burnin my eyes as I looked towards the sun

Well the arrow killed the beast
That is burnin' inside of me

On the horizons the warm color of amber
The sky forms shadows all across the land
A simple life out here in the country
Where the skies full of mystery and mystery fills the air

Well the arrow killed the beast
That is burnin' inside of me

Why don't we go out, why don't we head towards the sun oh oh-
oh oh oh
Why don't we go out, why don't we head towards the sun oh oh
All of my days I spend wanderin' out, out towards the sun
All of my days I spend wanderin' out, wanderin' towards the sun

And the arrow killed the beast
That is burnin' inside of me
And the arrow kill the beast
That is burnin' inside of me

Why don't we go out, why don't we head towards the sun oh oh-
oh oh oh
Why don't we go out, why don't we head towards the sun
