

Sunday

Heather Headley

(How u gunna let that gurl get between us baby?
Do u even know her name? How am I supposed to make it through t o u?)

Is Sunday gunna be my day to take it easy
(make it all about me)
Maybe on monday think about callin
Maybe tuesday we'll see how I feel
Sunday gunna be ma day to take it easy
(and make it all about me)
Maybe on monday think about callin
Maybe tuesday we'll see how I feel

It's 9:30 in the mornin, I didn't sleep well again
Tossed all night long boy
Can't stand it when we fight like this
Here we go again so I have to be gone
Can't deal with the fallout
Gunna take a time out
I need to take the day off
Gunna gather my thoughts, gather myself
I need some time without you, without you

Maybe i'll just take a walk
A few blocks get a bite to eat
See a movie (but not a love story)
Try to get in the key, listen to some stevie
What I need to do is go to church
And pray for that gurl that got between us
Pray that I don't see her
Pray that I don't meet her
Pray that I don't try to beat her

What she says and what she does ain't no concern to me
She don't really need to be all up in ma business
Baby u didnt really take the time to talk to me
You played me and betrayed me
Now Im ready I need , I need sunday-->

(OH OH OH OH OH OH)
