

Love Will Find You

Heather Nova

I believe it's all inside you, all the answers
Strip it down and see the light come, through the crowd
I believe it takes a moment, just to know it
And listen to the wind

Let go of fear
Let go of everything
Let go if it's real
Love will find you

There you go your down again, disbeliever
Hoping for a way to get through, desire
Everything in life has shown you, its so easy
Listen to the wind Let go of fear

Let go of fear
Let go of everything
Let go if it's real
Love will find you

Let go of fear
Let go of everything
Let go if it's real
Love will find you

I believe it's all inside you, all the answers
Strip it down and see the light come, through the crowd
I believe it takes a moment, just to know it
And listen to the wind

Let go of fear
Let go of everything
Let go if it's real
Love will find you

Let go of fear
Let go of everything
Let go if it's real
Love will find you
