One day in june, I slipped away
Called by desire, drawn to the flame
My virtues disappeared
Light on my feet
Whispers as sweet as honey calling to me
```

One day in june
One day in june
I felt the hunger, I ate the fruit
One day in june

So don't cry for me
I had my chance;
I took a risk - I asked the wind to dance
Don't try to save me; I'm already gone
Everything's over
But I'm burning on

One day in june
One day in june
I felt the hunger, I ate the fruit
One day in june

Oh and I don't like how it feels to tell all these little lies Try to be the one you can count on, but it's a thin disguise I kissed it all goodbye One day in june
