

Dancin' On A Rope

Heaven's Gate

Who is playing with fire who is climbing high and higher who is dealing with his senses, who dances

Who can drive at breakneck speed sits on the ejector seat who is diving to deep places, who faces

Who is dancin' on a rope who is sliding on the soap who fights with all his power, each hour

And they sit all alone they wanna hold their own I hear their voices again and again searching for another land

Who can sleep on pointed nails always wins and never fails who can beat the highest fever, deceiver

Who is burning like a flame who is always still the same who is playing with your senses,
who dances

Livin' on a rainbow
dancin' on a rope
livin' on a rainbow
