

Rising Sun

Heaven's Gate

We cross the night, we see the light and our dream comes true we're gonna bring the power all over you in our hands the promised land we gonna take it all the night awakes, do you hear the call?

Now the time has come and the spell is on the run waiting for a sign now we're on the line

We cross the land of the rising sun Hope we'll be all together But we all gonna have some fun And we can conquer all

We turn you up, we bring you down we gonna move around we dim the lights, we power up the sound you 're screaming high, you 're screaming low you 're turning up the show your feeling 's good and you don't wonder why
