

...Dust to Dust

Heavenly

After the rain arise the sunshine
And all the same I feel weak
The heroes win and never die
In all the fairy tales Memories grow in my mind
I'm bringing it all with me away
So now I must to regain the sky
The way of light, the land of braves
The heroes win and never die
But I saw the victory
The wounds are stronger as am I
My life is over again
And I'm bleeding inside Crawling on the road Leads to the paradise (the sky) as a human as am I rising up with head held high cause I defeated master the nightmares creatures
I am free flying beyond the stars
dust to dust
(I'm) leaving with (a) human's soul printed on my mind the life I passed away look the sky
you'll see me again high up in the sky
I watch the universe the land where I deny is far away from earth but I would love to remain
I bid you farewell
