

The Angel

Heavenly

The sequel to "Condemned to die". The man is crossing the line between life and death.

Lord, oh my Lord
Why this place, magic place
The mist is everywhere
The light is in the air
I hear in the sky
The whisper of the time
I need an answer
A reason to my prayer

You're the angel
White as the winter
You're the angel
Forever
You're the angel
White as the winter
You're the angel
Forever
So far away
Through the light
Through the sky
Til the end of time
You're the angel
White as the winter
You're the angel
White as the winter
White as the wings of life
