We came down with a crushing might I might be mistaken
We came down with a sickening flight
Forever forsaken

We got all bent right out of shape Hopelessly dreadful Cut through miles of blood-red tape Confessed a gaping mouthful

Too much, too late (3x)

We came down with a crushing might Something so rotten We gave up fighting a good fight Forever forgotten

We got all bent right out of shape Hopelessly dreadful Cut through miles of blood-red tape Confessed a gaping mouthful

Too much, too late (3x)
No love, No hate
Too much, too late (3x)
No love, no hate

We came down with a crushing might I might be mistaken
We came down with a sickening flight Forever forsaken

We got all bent right out of shape Hopelessly dreadful Cut through miles of blood-red tape Confessed a gaping mouthful

Too much, too late (3x) No love, No hate Too much, too late (3x) True love, True hate
